LOCAL NEWS.

"Go away, Kentner."

Rain, rain, rain, is wanted and wanted badly.

Supervisor La Prade left for Winslow about 2 o'clock Monday evening.

There were between three and four hundred persons raised by the Board. Won't "Rome howl" when next they meet.

An Apache Indian was brought in Monday, charged with murder. The evidence against him, however, was insufficient to hold him, and he was discharged by Judge Davis. The District Attorney appeared for the Territory and Geo. Estes represented the defendant.

There was a lawsuit in Springerville, before Judge Martin, last Monday over the water question, in which Marcus Baca was the plaintiff, and had to pay costs of suit. If there is anything in which Don Marcus appears to delight it is litigation, and generally comes out second best.

Henry Huning, Esq., came over from Show Low last Sunday evening. Had received very encouraging news from Don Pedro Montano in regard to his son Fred's condition. The operation was quickly and successfully performed, and we are glad to announce that Fred is able to walk about his room.

The Board of Supervisors, on account of the cost entailed by the Australian system, have cut the polling places down to eighteen. There are two left, however, which should have been cut off. Taxation without representation was one of the causes which brought on the revolution—representation without taxation or any of the other responsibilities or duties of citizenship is equally as bad.

J. H. Thompson, Gila county's efficient and competent sheriff, spent Sunday in St. Johns. He was on the trail of John See, the man who murdered his wife, a short time since, because she refused to live with him on account of his brutal treatment. Mr. Thompson is an old type, which accounts for his efficiency in his present position. As a rule, they make competent and trustworthy officials, though occasionally, they prove lamentable failures.

From the "tempest in a teapot" which was raised by our Mexican friends, over the communication which appeared in last week's HERALD headed "That Flag Incident," a stranger would have come to the conclusion there were going to be half-a-dozen or more first-class funerals. But the sober second thought prevailed and they quieted down without any such unfortunate occurrence. At first we were disposed to think the flag arrangement on the 24th, 25th and 26th of June, was an accident committed through ignorance. But subsequent events have almost convinced us that it was intentional. At least we have heard no satisfactory explanation of it.

There will be some heavy 'cuss words' heard (perhaps not loud but deep) at the next meeting of the Board of Equalization. A Supervisor certainly earns more than he gets. From the kick made over the payment of county and territorial taxes, one can imagine what a howl there would be if the tariff taxes were collected in the same manner, instead of in a round-about way. A protectionist would stand no more show of an election in any corner of the United States than a Chinaman would have in California.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Talk is cheap, but when it comes to putting up "el dinero," then it is a different matter. Must study over it for awhile, and see what effect the third party movement is going to have.

Married on the 4th day of July, 1892, at Pinetop, by Hon. George Q. Cannon, the following named parties: Richard Gibbons to Claricy I. Wilhelm, John W. Lee to Betsey E. Hamblin, Michael Hale to Alzina McDaniel, William Pulsipher to Harriet M. Greer, Benj. B. Crosby to Waty A. Slade, Charles H. Pearce to Eliza Noble, Henry B. Slade to Lucy S. Lytle. We offer our congratulations and best wishes to the happy couples, and hope that their pathway through life may be strewn with flowers.

When the Heart is Affected
By Rheumatism or any of the muscles near that organ it is like tampering with an electric wire for death may come at any moment. If life is worth $5, go to the druggist and get Dr. Drummmond's Lightning Remedy or send to the Drummmond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York, and they will send you a large bottle by prepaid express. It is not as quick as electricity, but it will save your life if you take it in time. Agents wanted.

Geo. Young, book-keeper for Gardiner & Gillies, accidentally shot and killed his wife on last Tuesday. He had been to the headquarter ranch of the Wabash Cattle Co., and was on his way home. There are a great many cotton-tails in that section, and Mr. Young got out of the buckboard to kill a few. In getting back into the buckboard his gun was accidentally discharged, the contents striking his wife in the side, just above the hip bone, ranging up and passing out on the other side. Mr. Young has the sympathy of the entire community in his unfortunate bereavement.

An occasional correspondent furnishes us the following: The people of Luna Valley and vicinity celebrated the 4th in the old fashioned way; the festivities being attended by about 200 persons, representing every family for miles. The day passed in the pleasantest manner and was greatly enjoyed by all. In the morning the people assembled in the school house and in an arbor outside, and listened to speeches suitable to the occasion, singing and recitations; after which all partook of a fine dinner prepared by the ladies. At 2 p. m. a dance was given to the young folks and in the evening to the grown people, which was the largest and most enjoyable affair ever held in the neighborhood, dancing being kept up all night. The committee in charge consisted of Messrs. J. P. Wimmer, J. R. Blavers, J. H. Cosper, Mrs. Chas. Curtis and Mrs. Jesse Pitts. The morning exercises were carried out with the assistance of Mr. Coplan, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Thompson, Mrs. G. D. Greer, Mrs. Durice, Mrs. Henry Reynolds, Miss Lou Wimmer, Messrs. Mel Swap, John Earl, Ed Dillon, Newton Adair and others. Dancing music was furnished by the inimitable L. Hamblin.

Last year:
Her eyes were rheumy, and weak and red,
Her breath—you could smell it afar,
She had ringing and dizziness oft in her head,
And the cause of it all was catarrh.
This year:
Her breath is as sweet as the new meadow hay,
Her eyes are as bright as a star,
And the cause of this change, she is ready to say,
Was the Dr. Sage Cure for Catarrh.
Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will positively cure catarrh in the head, no matter how bad or of how long standing. Fifty cents, by all druggists.

Snowflake Items.

Our General Conference, held at Pinetop on the 3d, 4th and 5th inst., was a very interesting affair to all who participated. About twelve hundred persons attended, and many old friends met after a long separation. Supplies were furnished on the ground at reasonable rates, and a good sociable feeling pervaded all present.

Some well remembered countenances from Salt Lake City arrived late on Saturday night, and added much by their presence and good counsel, to the general interest of the occasion.

The pavilion erected especially for the occasion was found to be entirely too small, and a general call being made, many willing hands gathered at daylight on Monday, and by eight a. m. the capacity of the structure was doubled.

A good programme was carried out to celebrate our natal day. The stars and stripes were floated from the top of a graceful pine tree, trimmed for the occasion—speeches, songs, etc., interspersed the exercises, and all responded cheerfully to the parts assigned them. It was decided that a grand ball should be held in the pavilion on the evening of the 4th, and again willing hands responded, and material was purchased, hauled and 2,400 square feet of the building floored between the hours of 1 and 8 p. m. Fifty-five candles placed upon that number of hastily constructed brackets, furnished light for the occasion. A fine band, improvised from the collected musicians, afforded excellent music, and if some of our otherwise staid citizens partook of the spirit of dancing, and indulged to some extent, they are quite excusable.

This house has been refitted and refurbished. Everything new and comfortable. Good beds and well ventilated rooms. Table will be supplied with the best the market affords.

STABLE AND CORRAL.

The best of hay and grain will be kept constantly on hand. Horses left in my charge will be carefully attended to. Will also keep a nice conveyance and good team for the accommodation of the public. Terms as cheap as the cheapest.

The weather was all that could be desired; but some clouds began to gather on the 5th, that seemed to suggest a speedy return home as soon as the programme was complete.

About three-fourths of the company started for home on Tuesday evening, and the balance Wednesday morning. A beautiful rain visited this section on the 6th, and will be much appreciated all round.

Dead Sea Fruits.

They slay multitudes when they are the product of neglect of incipient disease. A "slight" cold, a fit of indigestion, biliousness or constipation each or any of these "minor ailments" advance in many cases with "league-destroying strides." Give them a swift, early defeat with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and avert the danger. Abernethy administered an alarming rebuke to the man who informed him that he had "only a cold." "Only a cold," repeated the doctor. "What would ye have—the plague!" Rheumatism and la grippe are easily extinguishable at the start. Why then allow them to get up a full head of steam? Put on the brakes with the Bitters. The genial warmth which this superb medicine diffuses through the system, the impetus it gives to the circulation of the blood, its soothing and strengthening effect upon the nervous, specially recommend it to the enfeebled and sick. 'Tis the great specific for malaria.
